HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT.

The Opinion of The Caucasian and the Opinion of others which we Can Endorse on the Various Topics of the Day.

Sampson county has held nineteen annual Agricultural Fairs. We feel safe in saying that there is no county in the State that has been more noted ted for its fine exhibits than ours. The fact that the gallant soldier and famous statesman, Hon Fitzhugh Lee, Governor of the great State of Virginia, has accepted an invitation to be present and speak on Veteran's Day, December the 5th, and the fact that is almost a certainty (which we expect to be able to announce as such in next issue) that Governor Fowle will formerly open the Fair on Wednesday, December 4th, and that Hon. C. W. Macune will deliver the address on Alliance Day, December 6th, makes it a certainty that that there will be more people to attend this Fair than at any other exhibit of the kind held in the State, except the State Fair and the Fayetteville Centennial. Therefore it behooves the people of Sampson, Johnson, Harnett, Duplin, Pender, Bladen and New Hanover, the territory represented by this Fair, to put forth every effort to make an exhibit, not only equal to those we have had in the past, but superior. That such will be the case we have every reason to expect. Let it be so!

What is the lesson of last week's elections? What have been the causes that have wrought the political revolutions in Ohio, Iowa and Virginia? In the first Foraker, who has twice been elected Governor, Foraker, the bloody shirt flaunter, the rantankerous South-hater, the sectional tooter, has been snowed under by about 11,000 Democratic majority, which makes a Democratic gain of between 30,000 and 40,000; the second, which has, since 1860, been solidly Republican, with a majority of from 20,000 to 40,000, has elected the Democratic candidate for Governor by 7,000 majority: in the last, which was carried by Cleveland by only about 1,000 majority, the traitor Mahone has been buried under a Democratic majority of 30,000. In the country districts of Massachusetts the Democratic gains are about 20,000. Maryland and New Jersey have increased their majorities, and it will be remembered that a few weeks since Indianapolis, Harrison's home, elected a Democratic Mayor the first time in fifteen years. Yes, what does all this mean? It means first that the country is not satisfied with Harrison's administration, secondly, it means that Cleveland is a prophet. What did Grover Cleveland predict? When he sent his famous low tariff message to Congress, he said that it might defeat the Democratic party at the next election, but that he was sowing seed that would reap a rich harvest for his party in the future. That the people must be educated up to understand the monstrous iniquities of the high war tariff and then, when that was done, the party of tariff reform would have a long lease of power.

One of the most noticeable things about this election is that the greatest gains have been in the rural and agricultural districts, the sections that are burdened worse by the tariff.

Yes, the farmer is waking up, and the war tariff and its parent, the Radical party, are doomed. We believe that the Alliances and Wheels have done much, in their fight against monopoly, to bring about these splendid results. Let the good work go on!

AT THE CAPITAL.

What is Transpiring at the Head of the Nation.

[Reg. Cor. THE CAUCASIAN.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11th.

President Harrison introduced an innovation in White House custom this week that is deeply regretted by conservative people, who believe that the dignity of the Presidential office should be increased instead of lessened. To such people it was a positive shock to find that the President had had himself interviewed by a newspaper, on the election returns, in order to try and counteract the dampening effect they had upon his party associates, and also to furnish them with a cue to explain the crushing defeat away. If President Harrison really believes, as he says he does, that the result of the elections held last Tuesday was not intended as a verdict upon his administration, then he has not the sense that he has generally been credited with by even his opponents. A curious coincidence in the same paper is an interview with Mr. Halford, the President's private Secretary, which in sentiment is precisely the same as that with President Harrison. These interviews are regarded here, even by republicans, as a very weak and undignified attempt to fool the country. Republicans of prominence openly admit that the result of the election is a stinging rebuke to the administration and its methods. Old soldiers quietly chuckle and whisper "I told you so" to one another.

The rejoicing among democrats here is intense; they can talk of nothing else but the tidal wave, and they all see in it an auspicious sign for the greater fight in 1892. They argue that if nine months of Harrison's administration has brought about this result, four years of it will wipe the republican party out of existence.

154 designs have been received by the Postoffice department in answer to advertisements inviting proposals for furnishing a new design for postal cards. A committee will decide upon the most artistic.

Delegate Dubois of Idaho, thinks that Territory will gain admission to the Union this winter. There seems no good reason why she should not.

Secretary Rusk asks in his annual report just published, that 300 acres of the Arlington estate be turned over to the Agricultural department for an experimental fruit farm. He also recommends a more rigid Government inspection of cattle and dressed beef.

Ex-Secretary Bayard was married here yesterday at 1, o'clock. The ceremony was very quiet, being attended only by the family and a few close friends of the bride —Miss Clymer—and groom. The newly married couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short tour. It is expected that they will spend the winter in this city.

Mahone and Foraker get scant sympathy from republicans here. They are charged with having invited certain defeat rather than give up their schemes for personal aggrandizement.

The machinery of the Southern Exposition at Montgomery, Alabama, was set in motion by telegraph by President Harrison last Tuesday at noon.

The sickest looking men in Washington today are the republican clerks in the departments who went home to vote. This is particularly applicable to the Ohio men.

The Presidential proclamations declaring Montana and Washington States will not be issued until complete official returns of the late elections in those states are received by the President. The two Dakotas were simultaneously admitted last Saturday.

Corporal Tanner enjoyed reading the election returns much more than the President or Secretary Noble did. He would have been more than human not to have indulged in 'ghoulish glee," as he surveyed the wreck.

President Harrison reminds one of the man who told Noah to "go on with your old ark, its only a shower anyway."

Wednesday, Dec. 4th, will be Opening Day of the Sampson Fair. His Excellency, Hon. D. G. Fowle, will perform the opening ceremonies at 11 o'clock A. M. Let us astonish him with such an exhibit and such a concourse of people as he has seldom seen

A FINE EXHIBIT

AT THE SAMPSON FAIR

Is What the Agricultural Society Is Determined to Have.

PROGRAMME FOR THE THREE DAYS!

Special Committee Appointed and at Work.--Let Every Farmer and Housekeeper Bring Something!

STOCK ON EXHIBIT TO BE FED FREE.

The Executive Committee of the Sampson County Agricultural Society held an enthusiastic meeting last Monday and transacted much important business. The machinery for making a big and successful Fair was put actively and energetically in motion. The special work for each member of the committee was portioned out and all are now at work with a vim and a determination to bring out such an exhibit as has been seen at no other county fair in the State. The outline of

for the three days, December 4th 5th and 6th, will be as follows:

WEDNESDAY—Opening Day.

The Fair will be formally opened at 11 o'clock on Wednesday, December 4th, by his Excellency, Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, Governor of North Carolina.

THURSDAY—Veteran's Day.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, Governor of Virginia, will deliver an address at 1 o'clock to the vast concourse of people who will be present.

FRIDAY—Alliance Day.

Hon. C. W. Macune, editor of the National Economist, Washington, D. C, and President National Alliance, is expected to speak at 1 o'clock to 5,000 farmers of Eastern Carolina.

The following

were appointed to personally solicit exhibits for the various departments and classes, viz:

Of Cattle—W. K. Pigford, Everett, Peterson and Dr. John A. Stevens.

Of Hogs—W. E. Stevens and C. Partrick.

Of Horses—Rich'd C. Holmes Frank Boykin and F. T. Atkins.

Farm Products—Jno. R. Beaman, Sr., Frank Parker and J. M. Powell.

Of Machinery—E. W. Kerr, R. J. Pearsall and A. F. Johnson.

For Floral Hall—J. A. Oates, W. S. Partrick and W. A. Johnson.

For Decorating and arranging exhibit in Floral Hall—Mrs. W. E. Stevens, Miss Mittie Beaman, Miss Eliza Morisey, Miss Lillie Wright, Miss Anna Stanford, Miss Pocahontas Britt, Miss Nannie Faison, Miss Lois Anderson, and Miss Sudie Faison.

It was decided to feed FREE OF CHARGE all stock and poultry brought to the Fair and placed on exhibition.

The Superintendents of the various departments were directed to be present on the Fair Grounds Friday, December 3rd, to receive the articles for exhibit in their respective departments.

Capt. O. L. Chesnutt was appointed as Assistant Secretary to assist in labelling and making entry of exhibits.

The committee on the invitation of speakers reported that Gov. Fitzhugh Lee would behere without fail, for he so pledged himself to the committee with his own mouth. The committee also reported that favorable answers were expected from Hon. C. W. Macune and Gov. Fowle.

The Executive Committee earnestly solicited the hearty co-operation of every farmer and every farmer's wife and daughters in the county to make the Fair an unprecedented success. With such co-operation, such a Fair would be a certainty in advance.

When Hon. C. W. Macune sees our people and the exhibit they make to the world at the Sampson Fair, on Friday, Dec. 6th, he will then see that it was perfectly natural that Sampson should be the banner Alliance County in a State, which is the banner Alliance State in the Union.

IT WAS HERE

That Liberty put on her Swaddling Clothes.

The Fayetteville Observer of some days ago published a letter from the Federal Colonel, J. B. Edgington, formerly of Iowa, whose remarkable speech at Memphis, Tenn., we commented upon at length some months since. He was invited to attend the Fayetteville Centennial to come off this month. In his letter to the committee he says:

"Massachusetts has been said to be the cradle of American liberty, but it was in the State of North Carolina that American liberty first put on her swaddling clothes; where the Mecklenburg resolutions of independence were adopted. * * If American liberty is to be preserved in this country it must be done by following closely in the path marked out by North Carolina. * * Circumstances will prevent my attendance at the celebration in the flesh, but I will be with you in the spirit."—Wil. Messenger.

Stock on Exhibit at the Sampson Fair will be fed free of charge. Let every farmer feel it his imperative duty to see that his community is creditably represented.

LOST, A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY.—She (archly)—"Whom should you call the prettiest girl in this room?" He (looking about him)—"H'm. Well, to tell the truth, there isn't a pretty girl in the place."—Life.

ON A TRIP

THROUGH EASTERN SAMPSON AND WESTERN DUPLIN.

What The Caucasian Correspondent saw.

(Special to THE CAUCASIAN.)

MAGNOLIA, N. C., Nov. 9th, 1886.

This writer left Ingold on the 5th inst in the interest of THE CAUCASIAN. The people around Lisbon were found busy as bees at their respective works. Springvale church is about completed and Mr. A. J. Johnson of Taylors Bridge has nearly finished repairing his mills. Near Way Cross the people are losing their hogs with cholera.

Over the Duplin line the people were found busily employed and satisfied with their crops with the exception of cotton. Many of them are paying special attention to stock raising and fruit culture—two industries that our people should give more attention to. A great deal of syrup is made in this section and we saw three men who had made together 1500 gallons.

On Friday morning the 8th, we repaired to Warsaw to witness the laying of the corner stone of the M. E. Church.

The people began to arrive at an early hour and by 10 o'clock there was a vast crowd assembled to witness the imposing ceremony. The following masonic Lodges participated in the laying of the corner stone.

St. Johns, No. 1; Siloam, 178; Atlantic, 294; King Soloman, 138; Belmont, 708; Hiram, 98; Rehobeth, 279. Also members from the old Kenansville Lodge. The following officers presided:

J. C. Williams, of Rehobeth acting G. M., J. C. McMillan Dpt. G. M., J. M. Marshburne Sr. G. W., W. S. Creasy Jr. G.W., J. S. Hines Sr. G. D., R. R. Bell Jr. G. D., D. T. McMillan G. Sec'y., T. W. Boney G. Treas., E. A. Benton, G. Tiler, A. J. Johnson G. Marshals, R. T. Rivenbark G. S. B., T. D. Swindell G. Chap., W. D. Stevens G. P., J. D. Boney and W. E. Bass G. Stewarts, D. H Wallace Chief Archt., J. E. Parker G. B. of Lights.

The following articles were deposited in the corner stone:—A history of the town of Warsaw, a testament, history of the new church, names of the officers of Duplin County, $20,00 in confederate money, 10 cents in greenback, the minutes of the meeting, copies of THE CAUCASIAN, Wilmington Star, Wilmington Messenger, Christain Advocate and a copy of the discipline of the M. E. church.

After this as many as possible were seated in the Baptist church when Prof. F. L. Merritt delivered the address of welcome, which was well delivered and well received. Prof. Merritt was responded to by Presiding Elder F. D. Swindell in a pleasant and timely address.

Rev. W. S. Creasy, the able and eloquent pastor of Grace Church, Wilmington, was then introduced and delivered the masonic address. His theme was "Masonry and Christianity" and was handled in a masterly style, as Mr. Creasy handles everything he undertakes. We wish we could give his address verbatim. After Mr. Creasy's address the vast concourse of people repaired to the grove in front of the college, where a table near 200 yards in length was laden with inviting dilicacies prepared and spread by the kind ladies of Warsaw and vicinity. It was indeed one of the grandest feasts this writer has ever witnessed and after the multitude had been sumptuously fed many asket fuls remained. It was an occasion long to be remember with pleasure by all who were present and the good people of the community are to be congratulated and thanked at the same time for the handsome manner in which every feature of the programme was carried out. We had the pleasure of meeting Prof. F. L. Merritt, the progressive young Principal of Warsaw High School. He has an excellent school and pleases his patrons.

Rev. O. P. Meeks, pastor of the Baptist churches of Clinton and Warsaw, has been taking a vacation in Onslow county, hunting and fishing near and along New River. He is now holding an interesting meeting at Burgaw.

We noticed several new buildings going up at Warsaw, besides other indications of improvement. Our neighboring town might be said to be on a boom.

On Friday night a pleasant

CLINTON, N. C., -- NOV. 14, 1889.

Gov. Fowle has issued a handsome lithograph proclamation appointing Thursday, the 28th instant, as Thanksgiving Day in North Carolina.

The Sampson Fair will be a success, so far as the attendance is concerned. Then let us make it a creditable success, as far as the exhibit is concerned.

Judge Gilmer is said to have expressed as his opinion that Boyle will not be allowed a new trial, but that his sentence will be commuted by the Governor to a long term of imprisonment.

The enterprising Odells, of Concord, have commenced to erect what will be by far the largest cotton factory in the state. It will be run by a 800 horse power engine and lighted by electricity.

Ex-Senator Thos. F. Bayard of Deleware was married last week to Miss Mary Clymer. Mr. Bayard has just turned 60 and his bride, who is a great grand daughter of George Clymer, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, is about 40 years of age.

Billy Mahone thought he would carry Virginia and be the next Republican candidate for Vice President, but the prohecy that the hope of the wicked shall perish has been fulfilled in the Waterloo which Billy met last week.

Gov.-elect-Campbell of Ohio is a sturdy Scotsman of unimpeached integrify and unsullied Democracy. The fight between him and Foraker was one of purity and manhood against demagoguery and pusilanimousness.

Chairman Brice of the National Democratic Executive Committee is spoken of as the probable successor of Senator Payne of Ohio. Murat Halstead dream't he would dwell in marble halls as Payne's successor, but his dream has been exploded by the recent downfall of Republicanism in Ohio.

United States Justice Harlan has just rendered a decision that will compel Cross and White to serve out the terms for which they had been sentenced. They were convicted of forgery against the United States in making false entries in the books of the Bank to deceive the U. S. inspector.

The Northern Presbyterians are agitating the revision of their creed. Dr. McCosh says the older and more conservative men should move in this matter and make the changes demanded by the people. The clause in the catechism referring to foreordination, which is commonly called Calvinism, is the one that meets with most objection.

A material train ran into the rear of the westernbound freight on the Carolina Central road 12 miles from Wilmington on last Monday morning. The engine of the former and the coach attached to the freight train were wrecked and fireman Smith, a promising young man, was killed, engineer Mears saved himself by jumping. A drummer by the name of Blackwell from Durham was the only passenger in the car at the time of the collission and was slightly injured.

Besides the fine racing at the Fair next week, there will be foot races, wheelbarrow races, bag races, potato grabs, &c., as well as other amusements. Col. W. J. Green will deliver the annual address, at 12 m., on Farmers' Day, which is Friday.

It is now said that the Durham & Lynchburg railroad will be built to Fayetteville. This is the road in which Mr. Julian S. Carr is largely interested.

While attending Federal Court in Wilmington last week we we were informed that the contracts for the completion of the "Short Cut" railroad have been made. Surveyors arrived here last week to locate the route out of the city.

The people of Sampson are to be congratulated on the assurance of Governor Lee's being at the Fair. The Fair ought to and will be a great success.

Rev. W. B. Oliver is in Winston assisting in a revival there.

Mr. W. P. Fife, the "Drummer Evangelist," is at home for a rest. His last meeting was at Washington, which was very successful

In the Presbyterian Church, Wednesday night, Mr. J. L. Tatem was married to Miss Mary Lou Small.

The County Institute, last week, was well attended and teachers were delighted with it and benefitted. Prof. Alderman won laurels. Friday morning addresses were delivered in Williams' Hall by Profs. Alderman, B. C. McIver and Dr. J. A. Hodges.

Everybody is talking of the Centennial. It is all the talk. People from all parts of the State say that the crowds coming will be immense. Senator Ransom's address will be magnificent and the effort of his life. The fine $2,500 display of fire works will be the grandest ever seen South. This will be on Thursday night.

The Marine Band is worth travelling hundreds of miles to see and hear. The band is to be here on Tuesday afternoon by the C. F. & Y. V. railroad.

Salutes will be fired on Wednesday morning at sunrise, from four points in the suburbs. On Thursday morning one hundred guns will be fired at sunrise. At 12 m. thirteen guns are to be fired in honor of the thirteen original States. At sundown forty two guns are to be fired in honor of the present number of States in the Union,

Chief Marshal Carr and Col. Fred Olds, Quarter-Master General of the State Guard, were here last week completing their arrangements. The military camp will be at the base-ball park. The tents used at Wrightsvill will be used.

Ex-President Davis is sick in bed and will not be here. It is to be regretted. His letter, written on his sick bed, pays a grand tribute to North Carolinians. It will be read on Thursday.

The grand and reviewing stands are about completed. The work on the six triumphal arches on different streets are being put up. A New York firm commences the decoration this week.

The State and National flags will be hoisted at sunrise, while the salute of one hundred guns are being fired.

The railroads give rates at one cent per mile. It will not cost much to come.

The grand stand is erected where the old State House stood, which was burned in 1831, and where the convention met which ratified the Constitution on November 21st, 1789.

The Centennial ball is to be on Wednesday night. It will be the most magnificent event of the kind ever witnessed in the State.

Wilmington and Raleigh are going to suspend business on the 21st instant and come, en masse, to the Centennial. Such patriotism is highly commendable.

A movement is on foot to establish a silk factory in this city. This is the place for it.

The survey of the Fayetteville and Albermarle railroad has reached Troy in Montgomery county.

A settlement between the county and the bondsmen of the late sheriff has been agreed upon. The amount of cash to be paid by the 16th instant is $8,471.64. The Courthouse will be enlarged and fire-proof vaults put in. The whole to cost about $2,500. It is to be regretted that a new one is not to be built in our town.

Some visitors to the Centennial are already here. All this week they will be coming.

The Superior Court convenes this morning with Judge Shipp to preside. The State docket is unusually large. There is but one capital case, and that is W. A. Gautier for burglary.

Mr. Alden Bowles, of Ashland N. H. was here prospecting last week. He purchased 2,700 acres of land from Mr. A. H. Slocumb.

Thirteen young ladies will be in the procession representing the original States. Their costumes will be appropriate to the States they represent.

Senator Vance says he is going to bring a brigade of Charlotte people with him next week The Charlotte Chronicle says it will be a large one.

Senator Wade Hampton will be in the saddle next week as a honored guest of North Carolina. He will be at the head of the procession with Senators Ransom and Vance.

Parties desiring to secure quarters can write to Mr. H. I. McDuffie, of the Intelligence Bureau, who will attend to their wants. Applications for board are pouring in.

Fayetteville proposes to take care of the crowd here next week, let it be as large as it may. All houses will be open for the reception of the guests. Her proverbial hospitality will be maintained at all hazards.

The object lesson idea has captured the leaders of the movement who are producing our great educational strides of the present day. Where can there be found a finer object lesson in agriculture than in the exhibits at Agricultural Fairs? Then help to make our exhibit worthy of the section which you represent.

Messrs. J. C. Stevenson & Taylor, Wilmington, N. C.:
DEAR SIRS:—After using the half barrel "Champion Food" purchased of you we can readily say that it has fulfilled every representation made for it so far as we have tried it. In no instance has it failed to benefit stock fed on it. We can particularly recommend it for milch cows, calves and colts. We regard it as the best stock food on the market. Send us another half barrel.
Yours Truly,
ALEX. McKINNON & CO.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 10th, 188
Messrs. J. C. Stevenson & Taylor:
GENTLEMEN:—The "Champion Food" you sold us has been given a fair trial, it is a success, and we are glad to add testimony to its worth. When fed to our horses we find it aids digestion, creates an appetite and the animal improves at once; it is a great conditioner, and a trial will prove its value. We have fed it to our cows and with them also it has proved a great digestive, both the flow and the quality of the milk has improved, the per centage of increase we cannot yet positively state. The food does all you claim in the line of tests we have made; we shall continue its use and advise all the owners of stock to give it a trial.

To Our Generous Citizens.

It has been decided by the Executive Committee of the Sampson County Agricultural Society to feed all live stock entered at our approaching Fair for exhibition free of cost to the exhibitors. The procuring of the grain and forage for this purpose has been delegated to me. I hereby appeal to all who feel willing to do so to let me know how much corn, fodder or hay they will contribute, delivered upon the Fair Grounds by 12 M. on Tuesday, December 3d, '89. Let there be a generous response to this appeal. Those wishing to contribute can find me at my office over Messrs. Stewart & Hines' store.

D. B. NICHOLSON,
Chief Marshal.
Clinton, Nov. 14th, 1888.

[The proposition to feed stock free does not apply to speed horses or harness horses.—EDITOR.]

His Excellency, Hon. Fitzhugh Lee, Governor of Virginia will be here and deliver an address on Thursday, December 5th, Veteran's Day. Let us show him an exhibit that will be worthy of our people.

LOCALS.

—Fair!
—Fair! Fair!!
—Fair! Fair!! Fair!!!
—Fair! Fair!! Fair!!! Fair!!!!
—Mr. John E. Lewis is building a residence on Fayetteville St.

—The first German of the season will be given in Atkins' Hall on Friday night.

—Work on the Methodist church is progressing and that handsome edifice can soon be used as a place of worship by its congregation.

Mrs. R. Edwards, of Goldsboro, was in town a few days since, visiting her husband and son, who are in the merchantile business here.

—Those who wish to compete for the prize offered by Messrs. Holmes & Waters of Wilmington can get samples of flour at B. F. Powell's store.

—Mr. J. E. Royal's new double brick store on McKoy St. is nearing completion. It will add much to the appearance of that part of town when finished.

—Every member of the Executive Committee of the Sampson County Agricultural Society is especially requested to meet in the President's office, in Clinton, on Saturday, at 10 o'clock, on important business.

—Almost daily we receive communications not accompanied by the name of the writer. We can not publish an article, no matter how interesting, unless we know the writer's name.

—A much enjoyed candy boiling was given at the residence Mr. H. B. Chesnutt last Thursday night, in honor of Miss Lottie Murphy, daughter of Mr. R. H. Murphy, of Taylor's Bridge, —Died, on the 8th instant, in Mobile, Alabama, John Oates, second son of the late Jethro D. Oates, formerly of Sampson county, N. C. The deceased leaves a mother and two brothers surviving him.

—Mr. J. A. Beaman has about completed his residence on McKoy St. and Messrs. J. W. King and John Parker are erecting residences on the same street. It seems that our town is on a genuine building boom.

—Remember it is only three weeks more till a vast concourse of people will be on the fair grounds of Clinton, viewing our exhibit. We have no time to lose. Let every one put forth every effort to bring out an exhibit that will reflect a gratifying credit upon us.

—Our Thanksgiving issue will contain suitable and specially prepared matter with illustrations for the occasion. Subscribe now, if not already a subscriber, in order to read the interesting Thanksgiving stories that this issue will contain. Every little boy and girl in the whole country should read them.

—Postmaster Ward is erecting a building on the lot between the Episcopal church and the Railroad House. He will use it as the Clinton post office. This appears to us as progressing backwards in matter of convenience as no more suitable place could be gotten than the Atkins building in which the office is now kept.

—The Young Ladies' Cooking Club, of Clinton, which met at Elliot last Thursday evening, at the home of Miss Florence Faison, the president, served another one of those elegant suppers, which has already become to be the joy and the life of their favorite guests. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mr. Wm. A. Johnson, on Tuesday evening, the 19th inst.

—Judging from the immense number of people, not only from this section but also from a distance who will attend the Sampson Fair, it is already a financial success. Then we must make it a creditable success; yes, we must bring out an exhibit such that will not only make us proud ourselves, but also such as will be a surprise to the admiring eyes of our stranger friends from a distance.

—Master Ferdie Johnson, the fourteen year old son of our townsman, Mr. A. F. Johnson, was thrown from his bycycle one day last week and suffered a compound fracture of the arm just above the wrist. Dr. A. M. Lee was called in and set the broken limb, and at last accounts Ferdie was doing as well as could be expected.

—Dr. Marable's sermon at the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning on denominational warfare was a sermon to the point. It was shown that this custom, which has been much indulged in, is properly becoming more and more distasteful to the public mind, and that harmony and good will prevail to a greater degree among the various protestant churches than ever before. There should be no abuse of denominations by one another says Dr. Marable, for all christain people of whatever creed are God's children united in the same great warfare against the realms of sin and darkness and there should be harmony in each division of this grand army. This comes in exceeding good taste from a minister whom we have never known to indulge in denominational abuse. His sermon at night on the perversion of power or natural gifts was practical and thought-producing in effect.

TURKEY.

Ned Milton, an old negro in this township, who had heard a great deal about the accomodation of the Clinton and Warsaw train, flagged the train down a few mornings since and offered to sell conductor Holmes a small turtle. The old negro can't understand why the conductor usually so accomodating, not only refused to buy the turtle, but actually darted a few exclamation points at his innocent (?) head.

HONEYCUTTS.

On last Friday night the young ladies Athenian Literary Club of Salem High School gave a pleasant entertainment. The program consisted of recitations, dialogues, essays and music. Four young ladies read essays on woman suffrage and they treated the subject with remarkable interest and skill for persons of their years.

The "Queen O' the May" a recitation by Miss Cherry, and the music furnished by Misses Cherry and Williams were much complimented.

The exercises throughout were very interesting and a dialogue representing the "Woman's Rights Society" as a dismal failure was most interesting and appropriate after the subject of woman suffrage had been discussed.

Married, yesterday, the 13th inst., Mr. W. J. Butler to Miss Kate Herring, Rev. J. L. Stewart officiating. The attendance were as follows:—

Mr. A. H. Herring with Miss Leola Underwood, Mr. B. R. Butler with Miss Hattie Herring, Mr. Redden Butler with Miss Lula Beaman.

A reception was given last night at the home of the groom near Huntley. THE CAUCASIAN extends its best wishes.

MINGO.

There will be a public debate at Straw Pond Saturday night, the 16th.

The sick of this section are all improving.

DISMAL.

Married, in Clinton, at Bass' Hotel on Nov. 7th, Mr. J. M. Lockamy and Miss Frances F. Wrench of Dismal Township.

The attendants were Mr. W. B. Jackson and Miss C. C. Butler, Mr. J. T. Daughtry and Miss Jane Wrench—L. C. Hubbard Esqr., officiating.

LITTLE COHARIE.

We are glad to know that Mr. J. R. Harris who has been quite sick is much better.

Mr. T. H. Harris, one of the guards of the convict force on the C. F. & Y. V. extension is home on a visit.

Rev. J. E. Bristowe preached his farewell sermon at Bethel last Sunday, from Matt. 13 chap. 10th and 11th verses.

We regret to lear that Mr. J. M. Sessoms is quite sick.

The Hayne Literary Society gave a public entertainment last Friday night. The exercises consisted of declamations and the discussion of the query: Are political parties beneficial to the United States.

Capt. J. L. Autry has four stores in course of erection at Autry's depot on the C. F. & Y. V. extension.

Mr. James Owen who left for Georgia last January is home on a visit to friends and relatives in this section.

Prof. F. I. McKenzie has opened a writing school near Blocker's in Cumberland County.

"BLACKSMITH."

Married, to day, at the residence of the brides brother, Mr. W. L. White, Dr. J. F. Highsmith, of Fayetteville to Miss Mary Lou White.

SOUTH CLINTON.

Rev. J. W. Turner of Clinton will hold services at Chesnutt's school house 5 miles east of Clinton on Sunday Nov. 17th at 11 o'clock a. m.

MCDANIELS.

Col. W. J. Parker left Wednesday for New York where he will buy a large stock of goods to place in his new store at Parkersburg. These goods will be shipped up the C. F. & Y. V. extension on the first train that goes as far as Parkersburg.

Superintendents of Departments.

The following are the superintendents of the various departments at our coming Fair: W. A. Faison, sample crop; J. M. Powell, farm implements and machinery; J. L. Boykin horticultural products; Everett Peterson, cattle; E. W. Kerr, horses and mule; B. S. Peterson, sheep, goats and swine; J. J. Pearsall, poultry; J. W. Wright and W. H. Pigford, Household department; J. A. Oates, domestic manufacture; W. L. Faison, patch and needle work and embroidery; Marion Butler, art department. Each of the above is earnestly requested to make a thorough canvass in order to secure a creditable exhibit for his department, and to be on the Fair grounds on Tuesday, the 3rd of December, to receive the same and see that it is properly arranged. See special committees to assist in another column.

White Lake has become a great place of summer resort and every summer Mr. Melvin has as many boarders as he can entertain, so he is making arrangements for their comfort. He is also having some fine juniper sawed from which he will build bateaux, row boats and sail boats for the Lake.

Mr. Lewis Boykin, of Sampson, has two singing classes in this neighborhood. He has just closed his sixteenth school since July, and says his time is pretty near filled up from now until Christmas. Mr. Boykin is a fine singer.

If Sampson is not pretty smart Bladen will come out ahead on farm products at the next Fair. From what I can find out Bladen will be right well represented in both floral and agricultural departments.

Miss Cora Bronson, of Sampson, has charge of the school at this place.

Mr. A. A. McKoy, left last week for Georgia, where he will open up business, in merchandising. We wish him much success in his new field.

Rev. J. F. Butt lectured here Sunday on the "Royal Road to Happiness". It was his last appointment here, and his lecture was full of good practical common sense and advice. The M. E. Conference to which he belongs will probably assign him another field of labor. Bro. Butt has endeared himself to our people by his faithfulness and perseverance, and we reluctantly give him up.

The Railroad Company has built a large platform here for convenience to our cotton buyers.

Personals.

Senator E. W. Kerr was in Wilmington last Tuesday.

Miss Lottie Murphy is visiting the family of Mr. H. B. Chesnut.

Rev. Dr. B. F. Marable paid us a pleasant call Monday morning.

Col. E. D. Hall, of Wilmington, was in town this week visiting his daughter, Mrs. T. H. Partrick.

Mrs. H. W. Battle of New Berne is visiting at the home of her father, Rev. J. L. Stewart.

Mrs. Frank Boykin left Tuesday morning for Wilmington, where she will spend a week with her father, Mr. L. H. Bowden.

Mr. T. H. McKoy is visiting his mother, Mrs. Judge McKoy. He is accompanied by his wife and his sister-in-law, Miss Rose Cook.

Dr. W. B. Murphy, of Arran, was in town last week. He tells us that the station Tomahawk has been changed to Arran in honor of the old honored House of Arran in Scotland.

—The 20th Sampson Agricultural Fair! Let us make it a big and creditable success.

—Mr. W. H. Moore, who has been a prominent citizen of this place for a half a century, died on last Friday morning. A sketch of his life will be found in another column. Funeral services were conducted in the Presbyterian Church at 10 o'clock Saturday morning by Rev. C. P. Jerome. The remains were interred in Clinton Cemetery at 10:30 o'clock. The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. R. Beaman, Sr., J. A. Ferrell, L. C. Hubbard, Warren Johnson, J. H. Stevens and G. T. Rawls.

To the Marshals of the Sampson Fair.

Gentlemen—You will please report to me for instructions at my office, over Messrs. Stewart & Hines' store, on Wednesday morning, December 4th, at 9 a. M., sharp. All the home marshals, and as many of those from abroad as can do so conveniently, are expected to provide themselves with horses, saddles and bridles. It will be my effort to make your duties as pleasant and as light as possible. At the same time I shall hope to have your willing service and hearty co-operation in all that may be required of us.

Respectfully,
D. B. NICHOLSON,
Chief Marshal.
Clinton, November 14, '89.

Tribute of Respect.

To the W. M., Wardens and Brethren of Mingo Lodge, No. 206, A. F. and A. M:

Your committee beg leave to make the following report.

WHEREAS, It has pleased an all-wise and beneficent Creator to remove from our midst our worthy and much esteemed brother, John N. Jackson, who departed this life on the 9th of September, 1889, in the 63rd year of his age, which severed the last ties that so closely linked us together as a brotherhood. Therefore be it

Resolved 1st, That in his death our Lodge has lost one of its most excellent and worthy members, his family an affectionate and devoted husband, a kind and indulgent father and the vicinity a high-toned christian gentlemen and citizen, which leaves a vacancy that will be difficult to fill.

Resolved 2d, That we tender his bereaved family our condolence in their sad affliction, believing that their loss is his eternal gain.

Resolved 3rd, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days in token of our love and esteem for the deceased brother.

Resolved 4th, That this preamble and resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge, and that a copy be furnished THE CLINTON CAUCASIAN for publication and that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

WM. DAUGHTRY,
M. MCPHAIL,

IN MEMORIAM.

WILLIAM HENRY MOORE was born in Rockingham county, N. C., February 12th, 1812, and died at his home in Clinton, on November 8th, 1889, in the 78th year of his age. He came to this county in 1843, and was shortly afterwards married to Miss Mary A. Rackley, daughter of the late Frederick Rackley. Mrs. Moore died in 1886. Three daughters survive him—the wives of our townsmen Messrs. D. A. Culbreth, W. G. Rackley and W. H. Johnson.

Mr. Moore began life in humble circumstances, but, by the exercise of tireless energy, sterling integrity, and assiduous attention to business, he accumulated a competency of this world's goods. In business circles his name was esteemed as the synonym of honesty, correctness and promptness. This writer never knew any man more self-exacting in all his obligations to his fellow-men. In all other relations of life he was faithful and true. Having joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1839, under the ministry of Rev. J. B. Martin, he remained a consistent and faithful member to the hour of his death. His zealous labors for the completion of the Methodist church now building in Clinton, while suffering with the fatal malady which caused his death, won the admiration, affection and lasting gratitude of his brethren. Though he devoted himself closely to the management of his own affairs, he was one of our most public-spirited citizens, and every enterprise for the promotion of the progress and welfare of the community enlisted his hearty sympathy and received his generous co-operation. He was quite influential in the building of the Clinton and Warsaw railroad, and rejoiced greatly that he lived to see it completed. No man was more highly esteemed, or more universally admired for his many excellent traits of character than he. By his death Clinton has lost one of her landmarks, our community one of its best citizens, humanity a worthy example, and Christianity a shining light. His last days were spent in suffering and pain rarely witnessed, but he bore it all with that fortitude which marks the Christian hero. The world is better off because Wm. H. Moore has lived. He leaves to his bereaved ones the heritage of a good name, which is better than great riches, and to us all the sweet savor of a well-spent life. He is at rest. Peace to his memory.

CLINTON, N. C., — NOV. 14, 1889.

ON A DRIP THROUGH SAMPSON.

concert took place at the college for the benefit of the new church. It was a grand success and was much enjoyed and complimented by all who witnessed it.

Saturday finds us at Magnolia to witness the Reunion of Co.B. 1st N. C. Battallian. Col. L. L. Polk was expected to be present, but failed to appear, which was a source of much disappointment. About 12 o'clock the Battallion was formed and marched to the college building. Sergt Rivenbark called the roll and the following members answered as their names were called:—

Capt. J. W. Taylor, J. I. Collins, F. W. Taylor, R. M. Bloodworth, M. J. Rivenbark. D. I. Woodal, J. T. Taylor, G. W. Davis, S. J. Boon, J. D. Waters, R. M. Bishop, F. M. Wilson, Lewis Taylor, Bryant Merritt, J. S. Taylor, Ben Fussell, Levi Moore, D. J. Johnson, W. R. Johnson, A. D. Johnson, Jere Southerland, J. A. Moore, Randell Powell, J. E. Alderman, J. W. Lee, H. W. Moore, R. M. Croom, Blaney Blanters, S. W. Johnson, A. B. Fryar, J. W. Strickland, J. M. Drew, D. S. Williams, J. T. Quinn, Josua West, H. E. Newberry and M. L. Fryar.

This company was organized in 1862 with C. D. Ellis as captain.

The address of Maj. Foster of Wilmington was read to the large audience by Lieut Taylor. Capt. Taylor in a short address expressed his gratitute in meeting so many of his old comrades. His remarks were very touching. Capt. J. C. McMillan and Prof. R. F. Grady both delivered addresses which were much enjoyed. Prof. Grady found but one man among all the veterans assembled who was his comrade in the army. This was an old deaf soldier with whom he had fought at the battle of Franklin, Tenn., in which Prof. Grady received two painful wounds. A collection was taken up for this indigent old man and a handsome amount was readily made up for him. We did not learn his name.

A table of ample dimensions and laden with an abundant quantity of tempting viands was spread and the crowd was served to a sumptous repast such as only the skilful hands of the kind ladies of the community could prepare. It was an impressive occasion and a pleasant one and will long be remembered as such.

The Committee on permanent organization Messrs N. W. Powers, J. T. Collins and A. D. Johnson reported the annual meeting of this company to take place on the 1st Thursday of November in each year at Magnolia, We were pleasantly impressed with the progressive little town of Magnolia and the generous hearted people. Its tube rose industry is booming and the shippers are preparing to send large consignments to various points. Magnolia has an almost world wide reputation for tube roses and we think no place in the world is more intitled to such a reputation.

OUR LADIES' PRIZE.

All our lady subscribers and friends will be delighted at our good fortune in being able to announce that we have made clubbing arrangements with the best of all the Ladies' Magazines, viz., GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, of Phildelphia (see prospectus in another column), and we can offer all of our lady friends who subscribe for our paper, GODEY'S, together with THE CAUCASIAN, for $3.00. Godey's Lady's Book is not only one of the best of all the lady magazines, but it is also the oldest. There is large capital behind it, and the corps of writers engaged for next year (1890) is the best yet announced by any ladies' publication for the coming year. The great story, "$5,000 for a Wife," commences in the December (X-mas) number, which will be sent you by the publishers for 15 cents, and when you get it you can see the host of good things the publishers offer. Then send in your subscription to us, together with one for our paper, and we will supply it to you. Godey's alone will cost you $2. THE CAUCASIAN will cost you $1.50. The two together, if order is sent to us, we will furnish for $3.00. Subscribe at once.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co—Gentlemen:—I have been in in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice, have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,

ASHFORD'S TRUCK BARREL

Established from the Mouth of the Neuse to the Mouth of the Mississippi.

We received a few days since the following letter from Mr. T. B. Ashford, our former townsman, the inventor of the Truck Barrel, which we take the liberty of publishing:

HOTEL DENCHAUD,
New Orleans, La., Oct. 21, '89.

MR. MARION BUTLER, Clinton, N. C.,—Dear Sir: I have at last established my Truck barrel from the mouth of the Neuse to the mouth of the Mississippi, and will soon have it fixed from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

I find New Orleans a mammoth city indeed. Its limit is three miles wide, sixteen miles long, covering the entire county of Orleans. But with all of its grand and picturesque scenery and its magnificent buildings and broad streets and its steady hum of machinery and roar of omnibuses and street cars, the grandest of them all is the monment of R. E. Lee, erected by the ladies of New Orleans, one hundred and five feet high, and on its top stands in full size and form the statue of our immortal Lee. There is not a word of inscription on it to tell the traveler in whose memory it was erected, but the very form of the statue will till the sad story.

I was standing on the wharf on yesterday and saw the Mississippi floating palace arrive from St. Louis. It was a palace indeed—three stories high, about three hundred feet long, eighty feet wide, elegantly painted without, and finished upon the inside, with all the taste that could be imagined, regardless of cost.

The weather here is very hot—a fair July day. And the musquitoes are almost intolerable, being so expert in the use of their bills. Coming from the Scranton, Miss., here across the bay of St. Louis the bridge is three miles long and through the the marshes after crossing the bay. These expert bill-birds come aboard of the cars and were very annoying. If one could fly near enough to run his bill in at the window and hook it around the facing he would pull himself in if the train was making forty miles an hour. Although we have nets at night yet the steady hum of their uncalled for, uninteresting and unenchanting music and the popping and snapping of their bills renders a night restless to the weary traveler.

If I meet with as good luck here as I have since I left Clinton I will in a few days turn my face towards old North Carolina for a short time, and I will then strike out through the West to St. Louis and San Francisco; for I am determined that nothing but death shall deter me from establishing this ventillating Truck Barrel, my latest invention, and for which the government has granted me a patent from the coast of the Atlantic to the shores of the Pacific.

As I have an engagement to meet at 12 o'clock I must close at present. With much success to THE CAUCASIAN and the Ashford Truck Barrel, and hoping you may soon succeed in * * * some beautiful little girl, etc., etc., I remain yours truly, tho' in a foreign land, until death.

T. B. ASHFORD.

Painful Boils.

About three years ago I was troubled with poison in my blood, very irritating and painful boils breaking out all over my body. For two years I suffered with them, trying all sorts of remedies, and doctor's prescriptions without avail. Becoming disgusted with doctors, and medicines I had used up to this time, I concluded to try S. S. S. and the result was far beyond my expectations. A few bottles left me in better health than I had been since childhood. I consider S. S. S. the only medicine that will thoroughly purify poisoned blood. T. K. MAYFIELD,
Horse Cove, Ky.

A Valuable Tonic.

I have used Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) with good results. As a tonic, it is valuable; as a blood purifier, it is reliable.

Rev. J. H. JEFFERSON,
Winston, N. C.

Keep It As a Family Medicine.

Mr. J. J. Bradley, writes from Harrison, Ga., under date of Sept. 22, 1889. Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) has been freely used by my family with the best and happiest results. A half dozen bottles entirely relieved my sister of a severe case of scrofula. My wife has frequently found her blood purified and her health improved by S. S. S. I also had a scrofula affection that has been entirely cured by taking a few bottles of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.)

Contagious Blood Diseases.

Ulcers, sores, pimples, itch, salt rheum, etc., are evidences of contagious blood poison from the system by a use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) thus enabling the sore places to heal, and thereby removing all possibility of other members of the family becoming likewise afflicted. Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for book that will convince.

J. H. Outlaw, Mt. Olive, N. C., "I had running sores on my shoulders and arms. One bottle B. B. B. cured me entirely."

L. Johnson, Belmont Station, Miss., writes: "B. B. B. has worked on me like a charm. My head and body was covered with sores, and my hair came out, but B. B. B. healed me quickly."

W. J. Kinnin, Hutchens, Texas, writes: "B. B. B. has cured my wife of a large ulcer on her leg that doctors and all other medicine could not cure."

M. J. Rossman, a prominent merchant of Greensboro, Ga., writes: "I know of several cases of blood disease speedily cured by B. B. B. Two bottles cured a lady of ugly scrofulous skin sores."

W. C. Birchmore & Co., Maxey, Ga., write: "B. B. B., in curing Mr. Robt. Ward of blood poison effected one of most wonderful cures that ever came to our knowledge."
